

Pricing for Portrait Photography Shoots

How it works

1. We have a chat about your shoot, and book a time and place - on location, or in the studio.
2. You pay the shoot fee on the day, and we take as many photos as you want. I'm never too worried about time, but always aim to be done in an hour or two.
3. Within a week your photos will be fully edited and retouched ready to view. We'll come and show you them and talk about any prints you may want to buy, or just put them in an online gallery for you to see.
4. We will complete and send you your order, and you can order further prints at any stage.

Freestyle shoot at home or on location - £35

If you're interested in capturing real lifestyle photos at home or a place you love, like the park, a historic building or a local attraction, I can come to you and produce fun, lively photographs of everyone. I can set up a portable backdrop and lighting in your home for formal portraits, or take a walk with a camera bag, taking photographs as we go. Price includes travel up to around ten miles from Solihull.

Big white studio - £65

For some really special family portraits, sometimes we just have to take it inside! In the studio we can produce oh-so-flattering light, and photograph you all on our big white backdrop. One of the nice things about these shots is that they are a kind of 'neutral space', where the people and their interactions become the only subject of the photos. Feel free to bring any props, outfits or games to liven things up!
